

The Mihaly Russin Scholarship Award Application

In memory of our
Late President, George H. Mihaly, Jr.
& Treasurer, Jerry Y. Russin

Another RBO Fraternal Benefit:

The Russian Brotherhood Organization of the USA has, over the past many years, served the Slavonic people in many ways. The RBO is the only Russian Orthodox Society in America.

Today, emphasis is on education is increasingly important and the RBO continues to offer aid to those seeking a higher education so that we may help our future generations prosper as our RBO forefathers fought so hard for years ago.

About George H. Mihaly, Jr. & Jerry Y. Russin, honorees:

In 2003, the RBO lost our President, George H. Mihaly, Jr. & our Treasurer Jerry Y. Russin. We wish to honor these two remarkable individuals for their dedication to their Family, Church, Community, and Heritage. Through their diligent work within the RBO, the society was rejuvenated and given a new direction.

The Mihaly Russin Scholarship Program:

Each year scholarship awards will be made available by the RBO on a competitive basis. The amount awarded to each student will be $1,000 per year not to exceed 3 years. Winners of the Mihaly Russin Scholarship may include any students who have completed 4 years of full time college courses. They may have received a college degree, be working towards a Masters Degree, Second B.S. degree, or continuing in a longer program (ie. Medical Doctor, Pharmacist, etc.).

Eligibility:

Students must have a life insurance policy of $10,000 or more with the RBO. If the membership of the applicant is terminated, then in that event the RBO reserves the right to cancel the scholarship award.
