Twenty-Fourth Annual Alexis Russin Scholarship Award

Dear Sirs and Madams:

Please accept my credentials in consideration for this award. I am a student in a (two-year/four year) college program, and I have attached a copy of my transcript and have briefly answered the question at the bottom of this form. I understand that eighty percent of the weight of the consideration by the judges will be comprised of my academic achievement, and twenty percent will be based on my civic, church, fraternal, volunteer, and extracurricular activities and the brief essay.

Civic, Church, Fraternal, Volunteer, and Extracurricular Activities:

(List with Approximate dates- Use a Separate Sheet if Necessary)

In a typed essay (not to exceed two pages) please address the following premise. Since its inception, and always keeping the well-being of its members in mind, the RBO had offered, and has continued to offer, a wide variety of benefits to its fraternal brothers and sisters. Some of these are: endowment plans, annuities, scholarships, and a variety of life insurance plans that are affordable and comparable to much larger companies than ours. In the midst of catastrophic events in our society and around the world (i.e., the global COVID-19 pandemic, political unrest, economic uncertainty, high unemployment rates) please provide evidence that the RBO continues to be an organization that offers you and your family comfort, stability, and peace of mind, and how its ideals may have contributed to your overall outlook on life.

Answers may be typed or printed- use separate pages if necessary.

Absolute Deadline is September 30, 2021
