Twenty-Sixth Annual Alexis Russin Scholarship Award

Dear Sirs and Madams:

Please accept my credentials in consideration for this award. I am a student in a (two-year/four year) college program, and I have attached a copy of my transcript and have briefly answered the question at the bottom of this form. I understand that eighty percent of the weight of the consideration by the judges will be comprised of my academic achievement, and twenty percent will be based on my civic, church, fraternal, volunteer, and extracurricular activities and the brief essay.

Civic, Church, Fraternal, Volunteer, and Extracurricular Activities:

(List with Approximate dates- Use a Separate Sheet if Necessary)

In a typed essay (not to exceed two pages) please address the following premise. Organizations and individuals can often benefit from participating in core value exercises, which encourage participants to explore their values in an earnest way. The Executive Board of the RBO has identified the following as some of its core values, community, preparedness, and benevolence. We facilitate community wellbeing by offering church CD's and mortgages. We enable our members to establish a sense of preparedness for the future through annuities and endowments. One of the ways the RBO provides opportunities for benevolence is through our academic scholarships. What are some of your personal core values and how are they manifested in your life?

Answers may be typed or printed- use separate pages if necessary.

Absolute Deadline is September 30, 2023
